INVITED SPEAKERS

Dr. Ethan Gutmann, an award-winning China analyst and human-rights investigator, is the author of Losing the New China (Encounter Books, 2004) and The Slaughter (Prometheus, 2014). He has written for publications such as the Wall Street Journal Asia, The Weekly Standard, National Review, and Investor's Business Daily, while providing testimony and briefings to the United States Congress, the Central Intelligence Agency, the European Parliament, the United Nations, and the parliaments of Ottawa, Canberra, Dublin, Jerusalem, Prague, Edinburgh, and London. A former foreign-policy analyst at the Brookings Institution, Gutmann has appeared on PBS, CNN, BBC, and CNBC. He was recently nominated for the 2017 Nobel Peace Prize.

Dr. Adrian Zenz is a Senior Fellow in China Studies at the Victims of Communism Memorial Foundation, Washington, D.C. (non-resident), and supervises Ph.D. students at the European School of Culture and Theology, Kornthal, Germany. His research focus is on China's ethnic policy, public recruitment in Tibet and Xinjiang, Beijing's internment campaign in Xinjiang, and China's domestic security budgets. Dr. Zenz is the author of Tibetanness under Threat and co-editor of Mapping Amdo: Dynamics of Change. He has played a leading role in the analysis of leaked Chinese government documents, including the "China Cables" and the "Karakax List." Dr. Zenz is an advisor to the Inter-Parliamentary Alliance on China, and a frequent contributor to the international media. Dr. Zenz obtained his M.A. in development studies from the University of Auckland, and his Ph.D. in social anthropology from the University of Cambridge. Dr. Zenz has provided expert testimony to the governments of Germany, the United Kingdom, Canada, and the U.S. He has published opinion pieces with Foreign Policy, Foreign Affairs, and The New York Times. Most recently, his work on parent-child separation in Xinjiang prompted The Economist to feature this atrocity on its cover page and to refer to it as "a crime against humanity" that represents "the gravest example of a worldwide attack on human rights." You can follow him on Twitter at @adrianzenz.

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH!

We strongly demand that all member states of the U.N. not turn a blind eye to the ongoing china's silent, hidden genocide against Uyghurs in an open-air prison. Take decisive actions such as deploying peacekeeping troops, abolishing trade agreements, and canceling the 2022 Olympics to stop the genocide and authoritarian viruses from spreading across the globe. Millions of lives desperately depend on your help to survive.
